ANCESTOR JOSEPH WOODWORTH'S ANCESTRY AND DESCENDANTS.

INDEX TO THE NAMES.

COMPILED BY REV. CHAS. N. SINNETT, FERTILE, MINNESOTA.

ANCESTOR JOSEPH WOODWORTH OF HARPSWELL, MAINE.:

ANCESTRY AND DESCENDANTS.

COMPILED BY REV. CHAS. N. SINNETT, FERTILE, MINNESOTA.

1727144

ANCESTOR JOSEPH WOODWORTH, according to the records of his descendants and students of the family history, was of the 6th Generation of the family whose name was originally spelled Woodward, and used in that form by many branches of the family. It is not known just when certain members of this family spelled their name Woodworth, though it is said to have been the sons of Walter Woodward. But the name was thus incorrectly spelled by Town Clerks of the early days, who even changed the name of the ancestor into the Woodworth form in the data of his last years. The spelling of the name in the records of Scituate, Mass., is mixed up in such a confusing way that it is difficult to trace some of the Lines.

The ancestry of Joseph Woodworth of Harpswell, Me., is thus given by the best authorities which could be consulted. (1st generation) Walter Woodward settled at Scituate, Mass., in 1635, among the men of Kent, on the third lot on Kent Street, on the south side of Meeting House Lane. He also owned other lands in that year, one lot being at Herring Brook, 30 rods below Stockbridge's Mill; one on the north west side of Walnut Tree Hill. He left a Will, but no records of the births of his children. The names of his children are thus gathered from incidental records. They are thus given: (2nd generation) Benjamin Woodward who was a soldier in King Philip's War, "and thus lost his life."

"He died in 1728." Lands for his services were assigned to Charles Stockbridge for the use of the family of Benjamin Woodward. His children are given as Elizabeth-- Deborah--- Abigail who married John Jackson of Plymouth, Mass--- Robert Woodward, as his name is often spelled, "who settled in the West Part of Scituate, Mass., east of Symond's Mill, where Dimmick Bowker now resides." His children were Ruth b 1685; James b 1689;; Benjamin b 1690 and Married Mary Right; Elizabeth b 1692;; Joanna b 1694;; Robert b 1697; in 1719 Deborah Sylvester;; Mary b 1699;;; Deborah b 1701;;; Ann b 1704;; Lydia b 1706;; James b 1709; 1731 Sarah Soper. (2nd generation) Walter Woodward, Jr., who had children, Mary, Mehetable and Ebenezer.

(2nd generation) Thomas Woodward, who kept a traders shop at Scituate, Mass., and owned lands at Little Compton, Conn, though he never lived there. M 1686 Deborah Damon, and had daughters, Deborah and Hepsibah. (2nd generation) Joseph Woodward who M. Sarah Stockbridge. Had children, Joseph-- Mary-- Benjamin-- Sarah-- Elizabeth-- Eunice--- Abigail and Ruth. (2nd) generation) Mary Woodworth M Aaron Simmonds.

(2nd generation) Martha Woodworth . M Lt. Zachary Damon.
 (2nd " ,) Mehetable Woodworth, "Who was unfortunate in regard to her health."
 (2nd generation) Isaac Woodworth.

The direct Line of ANCESTOR JOSEPH WOODWORTH of Harpswell, Maine, is thus given: (1st generation) Ancestor Walter Woodward Woodward---- (2nd generation) Benjamin Woodward, the soldier of King Philip's War--- (3d generation) Robert Woodward--- (4th generation) Benjamin Woodworth the 3d child of Robert Woodward who M. Mary Right--His children were: of the (5th generation) Benjamin Woodworth who M. Ann Avery--- (6th generation) Their children: Benjamin Woodworth; Ann Woodworth and Joseph Woodworth of Harpswell, Me.

 (6th Generation) ANCESTOR JOSEPH WOODWORTH of Harpswell, Me., was born at Scituate, Mass., July 20, 1720. He is said to have removed to Harpswell, Me., as early as 1750, and became one of the most enterprising and helpful citizens of that town to which so many sturdy families came. He had a large farm on the southern end of Harpswell Neck, Me., and cared for it in a very thrifty manner.
 M Oct 7, 1740 Sarah Jones, who is said to have been a very devout member of the Friends' Church; of truly sterling qualities.

 Woodworth.
 (7th generation) Isaac Jones Woodward ; usually known as Jones Woodworth. "He owned a piece of land at Freeport, Me., as is shown by deeds from James Woodworth to William Haskell of Harpswell, Me., Jan 18, 1781.. Abstract of Deed, in Plymouth, Mass, Box 5, 1798. I * Isaac Jones Woodworth, of Scituate, Plymouth County, yeoman, for 50 pounds paid by James Woodworth of N. Yarmouth in the County of Cumberland, yeoman, sell 14 acres of land lying in Scituate, where my honored father, Joseph Woodworth, now lives, in three small pieces on both sides of the highway that leads from John Hatch's tp Prince Otis', with the dwelling house and barn standing on the same--- said house and land is the same which I purchased of Joseph Burk. Signed, Isaac Jones Woodworth.
 It would seem from this Deed that Isaac Jones Woodworth, or Jones Woodworth, as he was called, sold his house in Scituate, Mass., to James Woodworth (who probably took it from his father) and that Jones Woodworth then went to Harps-well, Me., or to Prout's Gore, and bought part of the land which James Woodworth had bought of Timothy Bailey, Aug 19, 1788. To this last Deed Jones Woodworth was a witness, so that he must have been at Harpswell, Me., at this time.
 I do not find a Deed from James Woodworth to Jones Woodworth, but when Jones sold to William Haskell in 1791 he reserved such land as he had sold to James Woodworth.
 Not being able to find any further trace of Jones Woodworth I have concluded that he followed the sea, and probably never married. He may not have lived much longer after the last Deed mentioned." From Mr. Frank E. Woodward, Halden, Mass.
 Members of the family state that Isaac Jones Woodworth had no children but do not mention his wife.

James Bibber. She M(2nd) July 18, 1778 Daniel Webber.
From Mrs Nellie H. Woodworth, Bowdoinham, Me. "I have a ring which belonged to Joseph Woodworth in 1770. This is the story of it; When he came to Harpswell, Me., he was a faithful attendant at the old Congregational Church of that town.
As he stood up in the choir to sing with Anna Bibber, who became his wife, she was particularly attracted to fine ring which he wore, and to his deep, musical voice.
As he was a stranger she and others were very kind to him.
The ring is of old silver, with dark and white stones set in it. I also have an inkstand that belonged to him." "him."

"This John Woodworth went away from home when he was about 22 years old and was never heard from. He was mate of the ship Columbus, and was a young man of great promise.
On one of his trips to Liverpool, England, he had a fine pitcher made with the name of his mother, Anna Woodworth, on it, and on the other side was a picture of him taking observations at sea." Mr. Chas. H. Webber of Lisbon Falls, Me., tells the same story and adds that this pitcher is in his possession. He was unmarried.
